 - Any person with a lawful entitlement to obtain the information.
- We may be limited in our ability to locate suitable work for you; and
 - We may be limited in our ability to place you with our clients.

If you do not give us the information we seek

How do we store and protect personal data?

Responsibly managing the privacy of your data is important to us

However you interact with us personally, by phone, mail, over the internet or other electronic medium - we will be responsible with your data. We hold personal data in a combination of secure cloud-based computer storage facilities provided by Microsoft and paper-based files.

We take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to protect personal data we hold from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorized access, modification or disclosure such as antivirus software and firewalls. We may need to maintain records for a significant period of time.

However, when we consider data is no longer needed, we will remove any details that will identify you or we will securely destroy the records.

No method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, 100% secure. Therefore, we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your personal information.

Additional information contained in our privacy policy:

Our privacy policy can be located at the bottom of our website www.caevest.com. It contains further information about the type of information we hold and how we manage your information, including how you can, subject to some exemptions, access personal information about you that we hold and request that it can be amended. It also sets out how you can complain about any alleged breaches of the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 and how we will deal with any complaints.
